Reading English

You have read or would like to read anything (novels, magazines, newspapers, essays, short stories, comics, graphic novels...?)

Watching movies/shows in English

We will read and talk about books you like/d, would like to read; we will watch TV shows and discuss them; we will watch movies and discuss them; we might go to the theatre or book readings or the museum and talk about that to. We might research and discuss topics you find interesting but that aren't part of your English class. We might get to know different cultures, for example by cooking or trying different sports!
